EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for the allowance of the claims in this case, is the inclusion of the limitation "a horizontally elongated lower side rail extending laterally inwardly from the inside side skin of the sidewall at a location adjacent the bottom edge, wherein the two side rails and the lower side surface of the inside side skin that extends downwardly from the upper side rail to the lower side rail form a channel shaped nook adapted to receive an end portion of transverse beams that are a part of a bottom for the truck/trailer box" in claim 1; "corner regions together forming horizontally extending weld recesses where the corner regions of the first sidewall panel adjoin the corner regions of the second sidewall panel when the top and bottom edges are in contact; said corner regions of the first and second sidewall panels, being thick enough at the weld recesses to permit the placement of weld beads in the weld recesses" in claim 7; "corner regions form horizontally extending weld bead receiving recesses where the lower edge of the top sidewall panel meets the upper edge of the intermediate panel below it, where top and bottom edges of intermediate panels join, and where the lower edge of the lowermost intermediate panel and the top edge of the bottom sidewall panel meet" in claim 10; and "each bottom sidewall panel also including a lower horizontally elongated side rail extending laterally inwardly from the inside side skin of the sidewall panel at a location spaced below the upper side rail, wherein the two side rails and the side portions of the sidewall panel extending between the side rails form inwardly opening longitudinal channels, and end portions of the transverse bottom beams are received within said channels" in claim 13 in combination with the other limitations recited in this application, which are not found in the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
